Bachelor's Degree in Pastoral Ministry

Program Description

The Pastoral Ministry program aims to train biblically grounded, spiritually mature leaders prepared for pastoral service, capable of guiding congregations, preaching the Word, discipling believers, and managing the life of the church with wisdom and integrity. The training deepens theological understanding, strengthens ministerial skills, and cultivates the character necessary for effective pastoral leadership.

Program Objective

The Bachelor of Arts in Pastoral Ministry offers comprehensive preparation that combines biblical, theological, homiletic, administrative, and pastoral studies. Students develop skills to preach and teach Scripture, provide pastoral care, lead ministries, work in intercultural contexts, and serve the local church with excellence. The program prepares students for vocational ministry, church planting, denominational leadership, and advanced theological studies.
