Master's Degree in Theology and Ministry

Program Description

The Master of Business Administration with a Concentration in Theology and Ministry is a transformative graduate program designed to equip spiritually grounded leaders with advanced business acumen and theological depth to exercise effective ministry leadership in today's complex world. By uniting business strategy with the pastoral calling, this interdisciplinary program empowers students to lead churches, faith-based organizations, and social mission entities with excellence, clarity, and purpose. Participants develop the ability to make strategic decisions, manage resources responsibly, and guide communities and ministries toward sustainable, Christ-centered impact.

Program Objective

To prepare faith-guided leaders capable of integrating theological reflection, pastoral sensitivity, and administrative competence in service to churches, ministries, and organizations with a Christian mission. This interdisciplinary program develops advanced competencies in organizational leadership, financial stewardship, strategic planning, and ministry development, enabling graduates to lead with integrity, vision, and purpose in contexts of service and mission.
