Bachelor's Degree in Christian Education

Program Description

The Bachelor of Arts in Christian Education offers comprehensive preparation that combines biblical, theological, pedagogical, and ministerial studies. Students learn to design curricula, apply teaching methods, lead educational programs, and develop contextualized discipleship strategies. The program equips students to serve in churches, Christian schools, educational ministries, community organizations, and to pursue graduate studies in education or theology.

Program Objective

The Christian Education program aims to prepare students to teach, disciple, and lead in educational, ministry, and community settings. The training integrates biblical truth, sound theology, and educational theory, developing educators capable of creating transformative learning environments for children, youth, and adults.
