Associate in Christian Counseling

Program Description

The Christian Counseling program prepares students to provide care based on biblical principles, emotional intelligence, and professional ethics to individuals, couples, and families experiencing personal, relational, or spiritual difficulties. Drawing on foundations in psychology, theology, and pastoral care, the program equips students to serve in churches, communities, and support settings with a Christian focus. It develops skills in providing sensitive, discerning, and compassionate counseling, integrating faith with responsible counseling practices.

Program Objective

To prepare students to offer compassionate, biblically grounded, and ethically sound counseling to individuals and families facing emotional, relational, and spiritual challenges. Rooted in a Christ-centered worldview, the program equips participants with foundational knowledge in pastoral care, psychology, and spiritual formation, enabling them to serve in churches, communities, and faith-based clinical settings.
